

A SIMPLIFIED PROFILE OF TAYO IN A FEW PARAGRAPHS

TAYO is the President and CEO of DONEDEAL G, a second millennium outfit comprising several smaller companies and social organizations owned by Done Deal G in whole or a majority/substantial shareholding.

Tayo was born in Ibadan Oyo State, Western Nigeria. He graduated with Combined Honours Degree from the Science Faculty of the University of Lagos, he engaged in several educational endeavours during his NYSC and also served on youth committees in the local government and other educational institutions In Ogun state, he likes to share and impact knowledge wherever possible, so he is always teaching or sharing knowledge with others in a part time or full time position

Tayo was considered worthy enough at that young age to chair a few youth committees amongst which was the committee on the investigation of the use of funds between the Ijebu igbo local government/State NYSC, a report for which he got special commendation by the state governor at the time through director of the youth development at the time, it was not surprising that Tayo went on to get several recognitions on several management , entrepreneurships and motivational programs in the UK and Nigeria

This early grasp of managing and directing issues formed the bed rock of TAYO today as further revealed during his further education in the UK. While in the U.K, as well as embarking on the post graduate diploma programme and the M Ba, Tayo Attended several Senior Management Programs in several Prestigious institutions.

The entrepreneur in Tayo led him to moving on from his part time lecturing employment at Camberwell College and ventured into private businesses. He founded Link free associates, a real estate and Investment Company where he recorded huge success. amongst TAYO's other companies were Zainab foods, Phone spots M.C. Communications, F & M Associates etc most of this companies were sold on as going concerns and are still thriving ,some in the original locations. Some of these companies were started with little funds and made into several hundred folds in value before being sold. In TAYO's restive nature as an entrepreneur of unlimited bounds, he quickly founded other chains of businesses spreading across the whole of United Kingdom and Nigeria.

TAYO is currently the President & CEO of DONE DEAL GROUP, Board member of several British, Ghanaian & Nigerian companies, A Consultant to several Companies, Member of the Institute of Directors, Member Association Of Business Executives and several other memberships of a host of Associations. TAYO is widely travelled and upwardly mobile with over twenty years of varied corporate, general administrative and management experience. TAYO is known by his current and former students to be a leveller by most of those close to him a quality he has had from a little boy till date resulting in what a lot of his past and present staff, friends and family labelled TAYOS LAW

IN TAYO'S WORDS, HE IS CONSTANTLY LEARNING AND HE CLAIMS TO BE A GOOD GRADUATE STUDENT OF U O L[UNIVERSITY OF LIFE] HE ALSO SAYS THAT HE CAN COMMENT AND WRITE A THESIS ON MARRIAGE AS AN INSTITUTION AND HE IS CURRENTLY BLESSED WITH FOUR LOVELY CHILDREN